I like the idea of number 3!

Low food bills, cheap insurance and easy to groom:)

Not sure about the looks I'll get at walkies time though:unsure:

At the moment I think we'll just call it No 3:)

I couldn't turn it away it was free along with some other big teddies. I do think it needs another home so sis when you're next down Im sure you'll find someone who would love it.

Its very well behaved, the other two havn't really taken any notice of it, Shadow sniffed, licked its ear and then looked a bit weird at it but thats about it:laugh:
